PARISH TURKEY SUPPER

Congratulations to the Catholic Women's League on another successful Turkey Supper! And thank you to Taralee MacInnis, the CWL steering committee, and to all the volunteers from Sacred Heart and from St. Peter's who worked hard to provide a wonderful meal. As I've said before, the Turkey Supper is a parish event that brings together people from the wider community and parishioners from other parishes.

On this Thanksgiving Weekend, we join people of other faiths and Canadians in general to give thanks to God for our many blessings. When we think of the various tragedies occurring around the world, we are fortunately to live in peace and relative security.

Normally when I drive to the Newman Centre in Guelph the traffic is smooth and the commute doesn't take long. During the harvest season, however, I find myself behind a track on Highway 7 more often than usual. Fortunately, I don't find this frustrating. Instead, I take the time to give thanks to God for our farmers and the abundance of food that they provide for us. In Canada, we have to worry more about wasting food than finding food. We are blessed indeed.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your family a Happy Thanksgiving! May we all be grateful to God for the many blessings we have received during the harvest season and throughout the year. God bless!
