Pastor's Message

THE CAPITAL CAMPAIGN AND YOUTH MINISTRY

Last week I mailed a letter to registered parishioners inviting you to attend a campaign gathering in Coulson Hall on either Wednesday, April 10th at 7:00pm or Thursday, April 11th at 8:00pm (after the Lenten Penance Service in the Church). This meeting will be a wonderful opportunity to gather with fellow parishioners and hear more about our building plans, ask questions and receive instructions on filling out your pledge form. If your letter hasn't arrived yet, or if you are not registered and didn't receive a letter but are interested in learning more about the campaign, please come to one of the meetings this coming week or contact me by phone or by e-mail if you can't make it. My contact info is on the front cover of the bulletin.

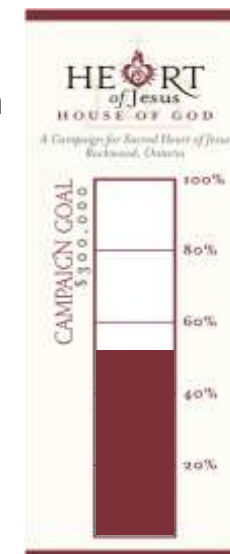

Please see the bulletin insert for a summary of the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs).

This year the Youth Rally will be held on Saturday, May 25th at Bingemans in Kitchener. I invite all young people in Grades 7 through 12 to attend with the group from our parish. The theme is "According to Your Word". It will be an opportunity to join other young people from throughout our diocese to take a good look at the beauty of God's Word both through Scripture as well as God's Word alive and active in our world. To register or receive more information, please contact Michelle Woods: youth@sacredheartrockwood.ca

The connect between the capital campaign and youth ministry is that, once we have built our new church on the hill at the entrance to Camp Brebeuf, my sincere hope is that the Youth Rally will be hosted by the Camp and we will host the Mass with Bishop Crosby. A partnership between Camp Brebeuf and our parish will be a win-win for both of us. I look forward to the day when our parish will be able to make a significant contribution to youth ministry for our diocese. Another reason to be generous in making a pledge towards our capital campaign.
