PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Offerings: Three Ways to Give

I would like to thank all of you who have been able to continue to support the parish with your offerings during the pandemic. Many parishes are struggling at this time. Thanks to your generosity, we have been able to keep afloat. Revenues are down. But we are holding our own. And thanks as well to the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy we were able to recoup some of our payroll expenses when there was a significant reduction in offerings at the beginning of the pandemic. I also want to thank Sarah Gould, our bookkeeper, for applying for the subsidies and keeping our books well kept. The pre-pandemic rule of thumb was to offer your wages for your first hour of work per week. Ontario minimum wage is $14.00 an hour. However, I realize that circumstances have changed. Having said that, we are entering the summer months, when offerings typically decline as people travel. I suspect most of you won't be travelling much this summer. So I want to make it as convenient as possible for you to be generous. To this end, in addition to offering envelopes, which can be placed in the basket after Sunday Mass or dropped off in the parish office mailbox anytime during the week, and online giving at our Web site with your credit card using CanadaHelps, we now have an INTERAC e-mail address: e-transfer@sacredheartrockwood.ca. By the way, some people have commented that our Web site isn't secure. That's not exactly true. Our Web site uses HTTP. There is no need for it to be a secure Web site. No information is actually entered through our Web site. However, the online giving through our Web site is actually hosted by CanadaHelps, which is secure. A secure URL uses HTTPS. So the Web page itself doesn't use HTTPS. But the form for entering your credit card information uses <https://www.canadahelps.org>, which is secure. At any rate, you can now use INTERAC to e-mail an e-Transfer directly into the parish operating account. No security question is required. The advantage of using Canada Helps is that a tax receipt is generated by them upon your payment. The disadvantage is that Canada Helps can't be used for Mass intentions. The disadvantage of the INTERAC is that you need to be a registered parishioner and you need to enter your envelope number in the e-Transfer message in order to ensure that your offering is recorded and a tax receipt issued at the end of the year by the parish. The advantage of the e-Transfer is that you can use it to pay for a Mass intention and enter the details in the message, that is, your contact information, who the intention is for, and if you have a request for a specific date. If you enter this information in the e-Transfer message you don't need to fill out a Mass intention form. The main advantage of using offering envelopes is that each week you are given individual envelopes for special collections in addition to your regular offerings. If you aren't using envelopes, or don't have them, I've included a list of upcoming special collections in the chart below. When contributing to a special collection online through CanadaHelps or INTERAC, please specify the name and date, for example, "September 20th - CYO Camp Brebeuf."

Here is a summary of the three ways to give:

- 1) Offering Envelopes – in basket after Mass or in the parish office mailbox (tax receipt from parish)
- 2) CanadaHelps – <http://sacredheartrockwood.ca/donate/> (tax receipt from CanadaHelps)
- 3) INTERAC – e-transfer@sacredheartrockwood.ca (envelope number required for parish tax receipt)

May God bless you for your generosity.

Fr. Mark Morley

Please help support or sponsor this important event by contacting Jeff Moser at jmoser3179@gmail.com to register yourself or your foursome!

This can include the repose of the soul of a loved one, as well as special occasions like birthdays or anniversaries. A Mass intention can be a meaningful gift for friends and family. To request one, please fill out a form (found in the office mailbox) and put the form with the $10 stipend back in the mailbox. Alternatively, you may send an e-Transfer to e-transfer@sacredheartrockwood.ca, including your contact information, who the intention is for, and if you have a request for a specific date in the message.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION MINISTRY: The church is open for Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration from Tuesday 7:30 pm to Thursday 9:00 pm. We are in need of a few more parishioners to sign up for one hour a week. Spending time with our Lord in Adoration is a great way to deepen your relationship with him. If you are interested, email Sophie at adoration@sacredheartrockwood.ca.

WELLINGTON DEANERY

MICHAEL HOUSE: Most of you are familiar with the yearly Baby Bottle Drive, to help Michael House Pregnancy support those in need. Our Parish has always been extremely generous with contributions for this cause. It usually starts Mother's Day and ends Father's Day. This year everything went topsy turvy on us. Please accept my apology for missing the information regarding their online way of giving. If you wish to contribute online go to <https://www.michaelhouse.ca/> press on events... press baby bottles, go down to the picture of baby bottle and donate. Let them know it is from Sacred Heart of Jesus in Rockwood. Or you can mail a cheque to Michael House (187 Bristol St. Guelph ON N1H 3M2). Thank You Kindly
