Pastor's Message

BACK TO CHURCH

We often think of September as "back to school" time. But in many ways it is also "back to church" time. Many of us travelled and took vacations over the summer. Apart from the Coulson Cup, there wasn't much happening in the parish over the summer. But now that it's September it's time to get back in the habit of attending Sunday Mass regularly. And it's time to get involved in the parish in various ways.

Along with having the Saturday night Mass back in Rockwood, there have been a number of changes in our parish music ministry. Noel Brett and the Sacred Heart Symphony are once again providing music ministry for the Saturday 5:00pm Mass. The Muia Family Singers recently retired. I'm very grateful for their years of serving the parish. It was my first Sunday as pastor over two years ago when the organist retired. Now it's time to bring back the organ. Charles Vince has volunteered to work with Julian Mason, our new organist, to provide music ministry for the Sunday 9:00am Mass in the church. As for the 11:00am Mass at Sacred Heart School, last Sunday Mrs. Ondercin, the school principal, lead the parish Children's Choir. I'm very pleased to announce that we have had a number of parishioners volunteer to take turns leading each week along with Mrs. Ondercin. This means that the children in the school choir can join the parish Children's Choir whenever they attend the 11:00am Mass. As we try to encourage more families to attend Mass in Rockwood, this is a very exciting venture!

Speaking of encouraging Catholics to attend Sunday Mass, in my homily last week I quoted Pope Francis saying that: "an evangelizing community is filled with joy; it knows how to rejoice always. It celebrates every small victory, every step forward in the work of evangelization. Evangelization with joy becomes beauty in the liturgy, as part of our daily concern to spread goodness. The Church evangelizes and is herself evangelized through the beauty of the liturgy, which is both a celebration of the task of evangelization and the source of her renewed self-giving." [EG 24] The beauty of the liturgy is one way to attract people to come to church. The music ministry greatly enhances the beauty of the Mass. And the way the Ministers of the Word and Ministers of Communion approach their ministries with reverence also enhances the beauty of the Mass. Having said that, we have had a number of ministers resign or move from the parish recently. Please let me know if you feel called to become a Lector or Minister of Communion. There is a Ministers of the Word Formation Day coming up on Saturday, October 21, 2017 from 9:30am-12:00pm at St. Joseph Parish, Guelph. There is also a Ministers of Communion Formation Day coming up on Saturday, October 21, 2017 from 1:30pm-4:00pm at St. Joseph Parish, Guelph. If this date doesn't work for you, let me know. There are other dates for these workshops taking place elsewhere in the diocese in October and November. Also please let me know if you would like to become an usher. There are no workshops involved.

Please note that our Catechism Classes for children attending public schools resume on Wednesday, October 4th. If you know any families with children in public school requiring sacramental preparation, please let me know. There will be a meeting in the church for all parents with children preparing for their First Communion on Tuesday, October 3rd at 6:00pm, and a meeting in the church for all parents with children preparing for Confirmation on Tuesday, October 10th. I also encourage you to invite adults you know who would like to become Catholic to please contact me. Finally, I would like to mention that I'm very excited to announce that our new Youth Group will be holding its first meeting for students in Grade 8 to 12 on Friday, September 22nd at 7:00pm in Coulson Hall. And there will be pizza! Speaking of food, Annual Turkey Supper is coming up on Monday, October 2nd. Unlike the summer, there is lots now happening in the parish. In the words of Pope Francis, we pray that our faith community may be "... a place of mercy freely given, where everyone can feel welcomed, loved, forgiven and encouraged to live the good life of the Gospel." PARENTING TIP OF THE MONTH (Parenting Tip 100)

In order to feel confident and connected, children need to feel that they belong. Their sense of belonging comes, in large part, from how they connect to their families – do they spend time together having fun, do they participate in chores and contribute to the household, do they have a sense of family values and traditions? As parents we need to be diligent in making sure our children feel a secure attachment within the family unit, so they can thrive when they venture away from us. (From: Teresa Hartnett, Family Ministry Office, 905-528-7988)

MARRIAGE TIP OF THE MONTH (Marriage Tip 80)

Marriages that are cared for reap rewards as the years pass: both people feel connected and in love; children feel secure in the love of their parents; they share times of joy and an ability to pull together when trials present themselves. Couple care includes spending time together, using good communication skills, and asking each other, "What are we doing well, what could we be doing better." The rewards for continuous care of your marriage are endless!
